

Connie Whitman's Introduction Text

Known for her high-energy, passionate and enthusiastic approach to teaching and coaching, Connie Whitman helps ambitious entrepreneurs, leaders and sales teams build powerhouse organizations to achieve wildly outrageous goals.

An international speaker and influencer, Connie's inspired teaching and transformational tools and content ensures entrepreneurs and salespeople grow their revenue streams through enhanced internal and external communication skills while developing strong relationship based cultures.

Connie is the CEO of Whitman & Associates, LLC for the past two-decades, and her signature "7-Step Sales Process," has helped thousands of entrepreneurs grow their business to high six-figure incomes. She is a trusted strategic partner and networking mastermind, building lasting relationships with innovative entrepreneurs, thought leaders, and organizations worldwide.

As a radio show host, she is thrilled to share inspiring content on her weekly, international radio show (podcast) — Enlightenment of Change: <http://webtalkradio.net/internet-talk-radio/enlightenment-of-change/> — as a free resource for professionals looking to fast track their careers.

Connie Whitman holds an MBA from Monmouth University and a BA in Business Administration from Rutgers University. Connie has been inducted, as an honored member, into the Trademark "Who's Who" 2016 Edition for Professional Excellence. She is also a faculty member for the New Jersey Bankers Association's "Emerging Leaders Program."